

SPOTLIGHT ON...

MRS. ROBY

Why do you love Woodhall Primary School? I have spent much of my working life at Woodhall and it feels nice to be part of a family that always welcomes you back.	Why did you become a teacher? Being in school as a child changed my life. It gave me knowledge, freedom and experiences I did not get elsewhere. I wanted to provide that for other children.	What is your favourite children's book and why? The Lord of the Rings trilogy. It brought to life creatures that did not exist but really should do. I cannot now look at trees without thinking about whether they are an Ent or not.
What is your proudest moment since becoming a teacher? Being acknowledged by the High Sheriff of Hertfordshire for the work Woodhall did in creating a Nurture Group in the early 2000s which has led to the effective support that ROWAN gives today.	What do you like most about being a teacher? I love working with children who find something really tricky and seeing them work out what they need to do.	If you could have a superpower, what would it be? I would use telepathy to alter what people were about to do if they were going to hurt someone (Including politicians).
What was your favourite subject when you were at primary school and why? I loved maths because it just made sense. It also meant I did not need to spell anything which I found very difficult.	What is your favourite song and why? Having lived so long it is hard to choose but if I had to it would be Tears in Heaven by Eric Clapton. Not only is he a brilliant guitarist but this was the song he wrote after his son died and it is very moving and honest.	What is your favourite pastime and why? I cannot choose one so I will write one sentence that encompasses them all. Riding the motor bike to my grandchildren's house, playing silly games and reading them some of my favourite stories.
